ANTIQUITIES .- Capt. Sylvester R. Hazand left at our office yesterday, some interesting relies of autiquity which are worthy of notice.

The first is a sword, the property of Capt. Cresar Potter, decessed, of the Black Regiment, in the War of the Revolution Captain Potter was a native of South Kingston, in this State, and his daughter, Hannth Potter, died in this city about four years. since, being about 90 years of age at the time of her decease. The sword bares merks

The other was an arrow, taken from an Indian chief during the Revolutionary War, by Capt. Patter, in tattle between the Black Regiment and the legibles, in the visinity of Mount Hope and Bristol. It is ratiously ornimented, and has a judsomed both.

Both these relies of multiplity were purchosed by Cape, Hazard a few years since and may be each at our office.

We have in our procession, also, another, interesting relie of untiquity, on book printed in 1642,-two bundred and sixteen years ago-cutible: Discourses up a Cornelius Tacitus. Written in Italia : by the Learned Marquesse Virgilio Maleceri. Indicated to the Secentralian Feedinand. The second Great Dake of Thuswang. And translated into English, by Richard Baker, Knight. London, Printed by E. G. for R. Whitaker and Tho. Whitaker, at the King's Armes in S. Paul's Churchyard, 1612.

There are lifty three of these " Discourses," occupying 504 pages of the book. It is a enriosity in literature as will as typographical exacution, and interesting as the work of men who are now mondering in dust. This Look is for sale, and may be seen at the office of the News-
